01. RAÚL LÓPEZ DE LA CERDA
Anáhuac University, Mexico

'Dividings, Privacy Exposed' is a shelf unit and divider in contrasting colours and materials, inspired by the 'ghost building' on Wabash Avenue, Chicago, where the rooms and décor were exposed after the demolition of neighbouring structures. rauldelacerda.com

02. MIYUKI FUSHITANI
Musashino Art University, Japan

Fushitani has created a security-conscious, ash-wood chair with a back that doubles as a storage space for your valuables. The space can only be accessed from the front, making it extra secure when you happen to be sitting on it. mykmykmyk.mmm@gmail.com

03. ROEE MAGDASSI
Bezalel Academy of Arts and Design, Israel

Combining simplicity with humour, Magdassi's 'Tre' standing lamp, crafted to form an abstracted bird shape, features an adjustable wooden base to change the light's direction. magdassi.com
